Senator Fitzgerald,

"We look forward to the upcoming contest between the Seattle Seahawks versus the Green Bay Packers.

Congratulations on the fine season your Packers have put together. One of us even roots for them when they aren't playing the Seahawks.

However, we are sorry that your Packers' season will be ending this Sunday.

We are confident that Russell Wilson, Tyler Lockett, D.K. Metcalf, Jadeveon Clowney, Bobby Wagner and Marshawn Lynch will secure the victory. However, in the highly unlikely scenario that your Packers best our Seahawks, the Washington State Senate stands ready to present the Wisconsin State Senate with some of Washington's finest.

We would like to present you with the finest apples ever developed in Washington state: the brand new Cosmic Crisp. Alas, these fantastic apples have been largely snapped up by consumers from around the globe. However, we would send a box of some other tasty Washington apples. In addition, we would also send you some incredible Washington State University Cougar Gold cheese. In the unlikely event you receive that gift, we are certain that you will find it to be the best cheese in the land, which is saying something since Wisconsin is renowned for its cheese.

Go 'Hawks!"

Respectfully,

Senator Andy Billig
Senate Majority Leader

Senator Mark Schoesler
Senate Republican Leader
